

A modern, two-story white villa with stone accents and large glass windows, featuring a swimming pool and lush landscaping. The villa has a minimalist design with white walls and stone cladding on the lower level. Large glass windows and doors provide a view into the interior, which is furnished with contemporary decor. A swimming pool is located in the foreground, surrounded by a well-manicured lawn and various plants, including a large palm tree on the left. The overall atmosphere is serene and luxurious.

