

JL94762A

The collage presents a comprehensive view of the villa project, from exterior aesthetics to technical specifications. The top row shows the villa's integration with its environment, featuring a swimming pool and lush landscaping. The bottom left image highlights the property's curb appeal with a luxury car. The bottom right section provides the structural layout and a detailed list of materials and quantities, ensuring transparency and precision in the construction process.

